Investment and general business associations

British Venture Capital and Private Equity Association (BVCA)

BVCA is the leading industry body for private equity investors and VCs in the UK. Membership is open to institutional investors, VC and private equity firms, financial and academic institutions, and other participants in the private equity industry. The association provides analytical research, policy briefs, and holds regular events, as well as networking opportunities for members. Membership fees depend on the kind of institution joining and the size of the fund (between £1,100 and £45,000 p.a. for funds; between £250 and £20,000 p.a. for other types of members).

Current chairman: Simon Clark

Website: <http://www.bvca.co.uk>

Email: bvca@bvca.co.uk

Tel.: +44 20 7420 1800

Address: 1st Floor North Brettenham House, Lancaster Place, London WC2E 7EN

CBI

CBI is the largest association for businesspeople and businesses in the UK. The CBI represents the 'voice of business' for companies of all sizes and industries, with a particular focus on lobbying on the national and international level. The CBI also runs awareness campaigns in support of particular issues (for example, the need for adequate infrastructure, more competitive taxation policies, access to finance, and so on) and produces high-quality analytical reports. Members can add their input through regular consultations, take part in networking events, and have access to market forecasts and other data produced by the CBI. Membership fees vary according to company size and industry and start at £650 p.a. for firms in the service industry and £500 p.a. for manufacturers with fewer than 5 employees.

Current secretary general: John Cridland

European Private Equity and Venture Capital Association (EVCA)

EVCA is the industry body for private equity and venture capital investors in the European Union. The organization was founded at the instigation of the European Commission and is heavily involved in political advocacy on behalf of the industry. It also produces analytical research and holds regular networking events across Europe. Membership fees vary according to the type of member and size of the fund (between €1,500 and €50,000 p.a. for funds; between €1,000 and €15,000 p.a. for other types of members).

Current secretary general: Dörte Höppner

Address: Sir Frank Whittle Way, Blackpool FY4 2FE

Institute of Directors (IoD)

The Institute of Directors is the industry association for business owners and executives, established in 1903. The IoD lobbies on behalf of company directors, provides advisory services, and runs a number of programmes in the area of professional development for business directors, including courses and executive coaching. The IoD also administers the 'Chartered Director' qualification for board members with at least three years of experience as company directors. Membership fees range from £580 for a one-year membership (£360 for directors under 30 years of age, £420 for overseas membership) to £6,480 for a life membership (£4,590 for overseas membership).

Address: 116 & 123 Pall Mall, London SW1Y 5ED

UK Business Angels Association (UKBAA)

The UK Business Angels Association was created to promote angel and early-stage investment in the UK. In addition to representing the interests of early-stage investors and raising the profile of the industry, the association provides opportunities for entrepreneurs seeking finance and investment opportunities for private investors, funds, incubators, and so on. Like other associations, it also produces analytical research and stages events for members. Membership fees vary between £95 (+VAT) and £1,000 (+VAT) p.a.
